

Director of Worship Position Description

Redemption Church exists to show our city who Jesus is, by creating a culture of worship and discipling the next generation of Christians and leaders. The church is seeking a part-time worship director (12 hours/week). The director of worship will report directly to the Lead Pastor and will be a crucial part of the Redemption Sunday leadership team.

The director of worship will coordinate and integrally combine music, liturgy, Scripture, and teaching on Sunday mornings. They will work with multiple team leads across technology, first impressions, set up, and the pastoral teaching team. Additionally to Sunday, this role will provide music and structure to a few special holiday services during the year.

Five key areas and core responsibilities

1. Liturgy

- Create and implement a consistent weekly rhythm in planning, preparation, practice, execution, and feedback for Sunday morning worship
- Use planning center to set Sunday liturgy and communicate to technology team for implementation

2. Musicianship

- Design and implement auditions, training, and continuing development for a variety of instrumental needs
- Recruit inside and outside the church for necessary roles
- Personally have a strong musical gifting in voice and instrumental proficiency

3. Theology

- Build a solid foundation for why worship is integral to the life of the church

4. Character development

- Disciple, love, and serve volunteers as you also grow in your walk with Jesus

5. Team Development and unity

- Recruit, train, and assess musicians in the five key areas of worship team success
- Collaborate with the creative team on stage design and sanctuary ethos
- Attend and participate in weekly Redemption Staff team meetings

Desired outcomes

- Sunday gathered church exhibits a dynamic range of worship responses
- Musicians grow in their walk with Jesus, worship leadership, and musical ability
- Church experiences the glory of God, weekly hears the Gospel and is encouraged to live by faith
- Good Friday, Easter, Christmas Eve, and YMCA worship events are successful in connecting new people to God

For more information and to apply, please email Pastor Shawn here:

shawn@redemptioncharlotte.com